So, this is the first number of a very ephemeral and quick, uncertain collection of zines "on spot" celebrating caring (or not) about things during re:publica #24 (and beyond).
It's free / libre content where we embrace imperfection authenticity from brains & hands (together / asynchronously), work local and out of the clouds not feeding the machine (learning) but bits of souls. Today was great not only for the fresh content we got, but also for testing some of our open source algorithms for PDF magic :)
Gracies / Thnx / Danke / Grazie for playing with us contributing TXT & IMG to the Commons to: Patrick Graf, Inga Schiffer, Lilith Becker, Edvinge Rosa, Erchom (baby OZ), Karolina El Lobo! Also for insights and nice conversations about analog & paper & printing & learning & more!
